

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS A.Y 2023 - 2024

The General Terms and Conditions of Assignment of Lodging (“GTA”) set out hereafter are an integral part of the assignment request form (“Assignment Request Form”) to which they are attached and contain all terms and conditions that, together with the terms written in the Assignment Request Form, rule the agreement between the Assignee of the accommodation (“Assignee”) and In-Domus S.r.l. (“In-Domus”), (together “the Parties”) governing the stay of the Assignee in one of the Campuses managed by In-Domus (“In-Domus Campus”).

1) Assignment and taking charge of an accommodation

1. The agreement of assignment of an accommodation (“Accommodation”) in the In-Domus Campus (“the Agreement”) between the applicant and In-Domus takes effect when the applicant receives the written acceptance of the Assignment Request Form from In-Domus (“Acceptance”). This written Acceptance of In-Domus shall be subject to the payment of the deposit and the first installment of the fee from the applicant, as set forth in article 3 below.
2. The assignment of the Accommodation is strictly personal and reserved exclusively to the Assignee who may not:
 - a) cede her/his Accommodation to a third person, not even temporarily;
 - b) dispose of the Accommodation in whole or in part;
 - c) to give hospitality to strangers, even temporarily, under any conditions.

The present disposition does not apply to the following solutions:

- Steel Dus and Palladium, in which it is possible to have guest overnight;
 - Iridium Plus and Platinum, in which it is possible to have a guest overnight for a maximum of 6 nights a month, for every single month of the calendar.
3. At check-in, the Assignee shall provide a valid identity document.
 4. The Assignee must be in possession of documentation certifying the suitability of accommodation in accordance with the provisions of the Covid legislation in force.
 5. The information data collected by the personnel in charge is transmitted to the local Public Security Authority, as provided by law decree no. 59/1978, article 12.
 6. The Assignee may not transfer, temporarily or otherwise, her/his place of residence to the Campus for the term of the Agreement. Anyway, the Assignee may indicate an address for service in the In-Domus Campus for the term of the Agreement.
 7. Check-in time: check-in can be done, 7 days a week, at a time previously agreed with the reception of In-Domus, by e-mail. On the occasion of check-in, the Assignee is also given the check-in form, useful for the inventory of the initial equipment of the Accommodation, which must be returned within 3 (three) days of arrival with the indications of any reports regarding the state of the Accommodation; if the form is not returned, it is equivalent to a declaration that everything in the room is in perfect conditions.
 8. The Assignee takes note that, once the Acceptance is received, the Accommodation is available from the start date specified on the Assignment Request Form (“Start Date”). From the Start Date the Assignee can check-in according to the terms provided above. It is understood that the Accommodation will be available from the Start Date, as is also the payment obligation of the fees as provided in the Agreement, regardless of when the Assignee will decide to check-in and/or regardless of the actual use of the Accommodation by the Assignee (as provided in article 2.2 below), and/or regardless of the reason for the possible lack of use of the Accommodation, notwithstanding article 7.1 below.
 9. Unless otherwise provided by In-Domus, it is possible to have up to 2 (two) guests per day for each resident between 8 am and midnight, regularly registered at the reception.

2) Duration and Fee of the Agreement

1. The duration of Agreement is specified on the Assignment Request Form, as are the related total fees that are calculated accordingly.
2. The Assignee must pay the agreed fees for the assignment of the Accommodation and the related services provided by In-Domus until the end of the Agreement regardless of the actual use of the Accommodation and/or the reasons which have brought the Assignee to execute the Agreement, except in case of early termination as provided for in article 7 below.
3. The payment of the fees or of any other charge shall not be suspended or delayed for any claim or objection made by the Assignee, whichever the reason.
4. No automatic renewal of the Agreement is permitted.
5. Clause of risk sharing for extraordinary energy cost increase: The fee indicated in the Assignment Request Form will be supplemented by €1/day for the duration of the Contract, in the case of the average daily costs of the price PUN (€/MWh) of the electricity collected and published by GME during the term of the contract is greater or greater than €200.00. For more information it should be noted that the average of this value in April 2023 was € 134,97 (<https://www.mercatoelettrico.org/It/Statistiche/ME/DatiSintesi.aspx>)

3) Cautionary Deposit and first Installment

1. Along with the Assignment Request Form, the Assignee shall submit copy of the bank transfer made to pay the non-interest-bearing cautionary deposit and the first installment of the fee, as indicated in the Assignment Request Form itself. The cautionary deposit is a guarantee for any possible losses or damages billed to the Assignee, when ascertained in a joint inspection at check-out, or as better provided for in the following art. 9.
2. The deposit, net of any amount due to In-Domus, included refund of possible losses or damages as ascertained in the above inspection, will be returned to the Assignee within 60 (sixty) days from the check-out date, through bank transfer only.
3. In case of failure of the payment of the cautionary deposit and the first installment of the fee – as indicated in this article – within 5 (five) days from the transmission of the Assignment Request Form to In-Domus, the said Assignment Request Form is to be considered as definitively rejected and In-Domus will have the right to assign the Accommodation to some other applicants.

4) Late payment of the fee installment

1. The payment of each fee installment must be made within each respective deadline set out in the Assignment Request Form. In case of payment after such deadline In-Domus will apply a penalty of Euro 50 (fifty/00) penalty for every delay.
2. In case of payment delay for more than 15 days (fifteen) after the deadlines indicated in the previous paragraph 4.1, In-Domus may consider the Agreement terminated as provided by article 1456 of the Italian Civil Code, and may prohibit the access to the Accommodation, by blocking the electronic access badge.

5) Damages and Losses

1. The Assignee is considered guardian of the Accommodation from the day that In-Domus gives her/him the access badge onwards. The Assignee must use the Accommodation, as well as the shared areas of the In-Domus Campus, in accordance with the Assignment Request Form, the GTA and the instructions and information available at the Campus and/or provided by In-Domus. The Assignee is also obliged to cooperate with In-Domus (i) by promptly pointing out possible damages or losses in the Accommodation and/or in the shared areas of the In-Domus Campus, and (ii) by allowing In-Domus access to the Accommodation as provided for in article 13 below.
2. Damages and losses possibly caused by the Assignee shall be refunded by her/him at the cost indicated in the price list provided by In-Domus (Attachment A – Cost of Repairs and Replacement). Damages and losses not indicated in the list shall be charged at the actual cost borne by In-Domus to make the repair or provide for a replacement, where repair is not possible.
3. When not possible to identify which Assignee is responsible for the damages or losses in a shared room, all occupants of the same Accommodation shall be considered jointly and severally liable. In the case of damages or losses to the shared common areas, all residents shall be jointly liable.
4. The value of the damage or shortage as specified in paragraphs 5.1 and 5.2 above must be paid by the Assignee upon presentation of a regular invoice by In-Domus following the assessment of the damage or shortage.
5. In case the Assignee loses the badge or the access key to the Accommodation, she/he can ask for a copy at the reception; the first copy will be free of charge while any other copy will be charged Euros 10.00 (ten/00).

6) Compulsory change of assigned place

1. The Assignee acknowledges and accepts that In-Domus, with a notice of at least 30 (thirty), days, has the right to move the Assignee, inside the same Campus, to a solution equal or superior to the Accommodation assigned. If the move is a direct or indirect consequence of reasons of force majeure or is due to need/opportunity related to the administration of the In-Domus Campuses (including, for example, in case of extraordinary maintenance and/or Assignee's reservations and/or attendance not sufficient to keep open all the In-Domus Campuses), the notice period could be reduced and the Assignee could be moved to another In-Domus Campus in Milan and/or in a lodge cheaper than the Accommodation assigned.
2. It is understood that in case of move as provided for in paragraph 6.1 above, the Agreement will not be subject to any alteration (notwithstanding, evidently, with reference to the different kind of lodge assigned) and, in particular, no additional costs will be charged to the Assignee (except for the provision of article 10.3 below). Furthermore, in case of move to a lodge cheaper than the Accommodation assigned, In-Domus will refund the credit balance to the Assignee.
3. At the swap of the Accommodation, the Assignee shall sign the check-out form, hand back badges and keys and pay any due charges, including charges related to any possible Extraordinary Service, as defined in article 10.3 below.

7) Early Termination

1. The Assignment Request Form sent to In-Domus is considered irreversible. In case the applicant and/or the Assignee informs In-Domus – no later than 2 (two) days before the Start Date – that she/he is no longer interested in the Assignment Request Form and/or she/he terminates the Agreement (“Notification”), In Domus will return the first installment of the fee to her/him, but the Assignee will have to pay an amount equal to the Cautionary Deposit as provided for in article 3 above, by way of penalty for the early termination. It is understood that in case In-Domus receives the Notification after the term indicated in this article the provisions of paragraphs 7.2 and 7.3. will be applied.
2. The Assignee may file request of early termination from the assigned Accommodation before the end of the term of the Agreement; the request must be sent to the following e-mail address info@in-domus.it and must indicate the desired check-out day.
3. When requesting an early termination as per paragraph 7.2, the Assignee must grant a notice of at least 30 (thirty) days for early withdrawal, and shall pay to In-Domus, together with the fee of the notice period, an amount equal to 2 (two) months’ fee (including charges related to any possible Extraordinary Service) as penalty for the early termination. Needless to say, the total fees paid by the Assignee will not exceed the amount of total fees provided for in the Assignment Request Form.

8) Maintaining of the common areas and accommodation

1. Study rooms/Gym/Game Room/Common areas: study rooms, gym, game room and other common areas are available within the campuses. At the end of the use, the study station must be cleared of any personal effects. In-Domus reserves the right to remove personal effects left unattended by occupying the stations.
2. Common kitchens and meal areas: Guests who use them must carry out the cooking operations and subsequent cleaning / sanitization with the utmost diligence and in compliance with the procedures in force and exposed. At the end of the use of the kitchen, all personal property and any waste must be removed. In-Domus reserves the right to remove objects left unattended in common kitchens and dining areas. Please note that the guest is directly responsible for the cleaning of the microwave ovens and ovens and for the proper storage of food in refrigerators and freezers. It is also the guest’s responsibility to carry out the correct separation of waste as required by local regulations.
3. Waste sorting: the guest is responsible for the correct separation of the waste;
4. Accommodation: to allow the cleaning operations by the staff in charge to be carried out with maximum effectiveness reaching optimal quality standards, it is requested that on the scheduled day of cleaning the guest clears the surfaces such as, for example, the desk and lifts personal belongings from the ground. The following are prohibited:
 - drill holes or affix posters, photos or other objects to the walls or other surfaces of the Accommodation, with the exception of dedicated spaces (notice boards);
 - introduce furniture and/or small furnishings that substantially change the layout of the room. In any case, the guest must be authorized by the Reception of reference before proceeding with any change in the furnishings and the relative disposition;
 - bring bicycles within the campus except in specially identified areas.It is also noted that the guest is directly responsible for cleaning the refrigerators, ovens, microwave ovens located inside the apartments. It is also the responsibility of the guest to carry out the correct separation of waste as required by local regulations and to deliver them in the appropriate areas of collection, the above also in order to ensure appropriate hygiene standards and avoid odors.

In-Domus reserves the right to apply sanctions in the event of non-compliance with the above. The student acknowledges that the obligation to keep both own property and assets used by the same is the responsibility of the student himself. Therefore, the student releases In-Domus from any responsibility in this regard.

9) Release of the accommodation

1. The return of the Accommodation implies the obligation of a preliminary check-out, run together with In-Domus’ personnel. The Assignee must book a check-out day and time at the In-Domus reception, with at least 7 (seven) days of advanced notice from departure. For organizational reasons, check-out can only take place by appointment to be fixed by email with the campus reception. The Accommodation must be emptied of personal belongings by 10:00 AM of the last day of contract.
2. In case it is not possible to agree on a check-out appointment in the presence of an In-Domus representative, the Assignee waives any dispute relating to any damages and / or shortages detected by In-Domus that will be charged as provided for in art. 5 above.

3. At check-out, the Assignee must underwrite the check-out form, empty the room and the locker (in case the latter is assigned) from every personal effect and garbage, if any, and hand back the access badge of the Accommodation. In case check-out is carried out without the Assignee as set forth in art. Art 9.2 the form will be filled out by an In-Domus representative.
4. Any damage to or loss, in comparison to the check-in inventory provided in article 1.7 above, found at check-out will be charged to the Assignee accordingly to article 5 of the Agreement.
5. In case of late return of the Accommodation, the Assignee will be charged a penalty of Euros 60.00 (sixty) for every day of delay, without prejudice to In-Domus' right to claim higher damages caused by such late return.
6. At check-out, the Assignee will have to pay the Restoration fee (final cleaning, sanitization and reorganization of the Accommodation) as indicated on the pricelist for each solution

10) In-Domus indemnity

1. In-Domus is expressly indemnified from all responsibilities for any damage, directly or indirectly derived to the Assignee: (i) from an improper use of the facilities of the In-Domus Campus (included the gym, if existing) and/or of the services and/or of the Accommodation, and/or (ii) from the lack of respect of the prescription of paragraph 5.1, (iii) from fraudulent or malicious act of other guests or third parties, by way of example but not limited to, in the event of theft, shortage or damage to personal belongings of the Assignee, in any part of the Campus they have occurred, both during the contractual period and during any deposit in the room and / or in a dedicated common space.
2. In-Domus is also expressly indemnified from all responsibilities for any interruption to the provision of services subject matter of the Agreement (including the interruption in the availability of the Accommodation).
3. Without prejudice to the provisions of articles 9.1 and 9.2, the Assignee acknowledges and accepts that, as a direct or indirect consequence of any reason of force majeure (such as but not limited to epidemic, orders of authority, natural disaster, strikes), In-Domus shall provide particular extraordinary services ("Extraordinary Services") that could be necessary and/or appropriate in order to fulfil the Agreement: the Extraordinary Services are additional to and/or a replacement of the agreed services provided for in the Agreement (such as but not limited to services in favor of the Assignee caught in the quarantine, extraordinary sanitizations of the Accommodation and the common areas, moving of the Assignee and/or of any Assignees roommates to other lodges with daily rates, and/or to other In-Domus Campuses and/or to conventional structures, change in the Agreement's housing solution). In this case the Assignee undertakes to bear the charges of the Extraordinary Services, based on the current fees from time to time communicated and made available to the Assignee, to the extent previously indicated by In-Domus and without prejudice, in any case, to the Assignee's right to withdraw from the Agreement upon the terms and conditions of article 7 above; it is understood that the charges of the Extraordinary Services are due considering the whole period of stay (including the last day) of the Assignee in the In-Domus Campus and/or in the lodges/structures mentioned above.

11) Actions and sanctions

1. Any breach of the Terms and Conditions of the Agreement shall result in administrative fees, as described in the present paragraph. The fees listed in the Attachment B (Administrative Fee) should be considered by way of example without prejudice to the right of In-Domus of compensation for greater damages.

In-Domus has also the right to proceed with the cancellation of the assigned lodging place and with the termination of the Agreement as per article 1456 of the Italian Civil Code, in the following cases:

- i. keeping flammable material and/or weapons and/or drugs, even for personal use, in the Accommodation, and/or in the common areas of the In-Domus Campus;
- ii. omitted full payment even of only one installment of fees according to the deadlines defined in the Assignment Request Form, as provided for in article 4 (without prejudice, in any case, to the penalty specified therein);
- iii. allowing repeatedly her/his Accommodation to be used by third parties in whole or in part;
- iv. serious infringements of the rules provided for in the Handbook or in the Terms of Use or breaches of the law, also related to the use of the IT Facilities;
- v. conduct that goes against public order and laws;
- vi. repeated prohibited behaviors listed in the Attachment B mentioned in art. 11.1.

2. The written warning set forth in article 11.1 shall be delivered to the Assignee by e-mail to the e-mail address specified by the Assignee in the Assignment Request Form and the Assignee undertakes and accepts that the date of dispatch is deemed to be the one corresponding to the date of receipt of the warning letter.

3. In the cases described in point 11.1. above, In-Domus has the right to immediately and automatically revoke the Accommodation. The revocation of the Assignee's Accommodation, by In-Domus with a letter delivered by hand at the Accommodation in the In-Domus Campus or, in case of unavailability, through a registered letter to her/his residence address stated on the Assignment Request Form.

4. In case of cancellation of the Accommodation, the Assignee:

- a) shall be no longer eligible for any Assignment place in an In-Domus Campus;
- b) shall receive no refund of any paid fee and shall in any case be obliged to pay three monthly installments, by way of penalty.

12) Use of IT Facilities

1. If the Assignee uses the shared IT facilities of the In-Domus Campus (including the Wi-Fi service) (the "IT Facilities") provided by In-Domus under the Agreement, the Assignee undertakes as of now to execute and to comply with the respective terms of use, if any (the "Terms of Use"), as well as, in any case, to comply with the instructions that will be provided by In-Domus.
2. The Assignee undertakes to indemnify and hold In-Domus harmless against any charges, cost, loss or damage suffered by In-Domus as a consequence of the use of the IT Facilities by the Assignee in violation of the law, of the Terms of Use and/or of the instructions provided by In-Domus.

13) Video Surveillance of the common areas an In-Domus right to access the Accommodation

The Assignee agrees and accepts that the common areas of the Campus are under video surveillance.

The Assignee agrees and accepts that In-Domus will always hold a copy of the key or a copy of the badge in order to access the Accommodation and that In-Domus may access the Accommodation at any time during the term of the Agreement in the following circumstances:

- in the presence of the Assignee or, if more than one, at least one of the Assignees;
- in the absence of an Assignee, with a prior notice of at least 24 hours, in order to verify the state of the Accommodation, carry out scheduled maintenance activities or other management needs;
- in the absence of an Assignee and without notice: i) in order to carry out urgent repairs; or ii) in case of an Assignee's absence exceeding 2 weeks or; iii) if it turns out that the Accommodation is occupied by strangers;
- at any time, without notice and regardless of whether or not an Assignee is present, in case In-Domus has reasonable grounds to believe the Assignee has breached or is still breaching the prescriptions of point 11.1.

14) Jurisdiction and communication

The Parties agree that any disputes arising out of the Agreement, its interpretation, execution, validity or termination, or in any way connected to the Agreement, shall be finally settled by the Italian Courts of Milan.

Every communication between the Parties, when not differently provided for, shall be made to the following addresses:

1. to In-Domus: by email to amministrazione@in-domus.it or by registered delivery to: via Mario Del Monaco 4, 20157 Milano;
2. to the Assignee: by email or by registered delivery to the addresses that she or he has written in the Assignment Request Form.

15) Privacy

Signing the present GTA, the applicant declares that she/he has carefully read the Privacy Policy on data processing for the effects of article 13 of EU Regulation no. 679/2016 attached here to.

SPECIFIC APPROVATION

For the effects of articles 1341/1342 of Civil Code, where applicable, the Parties declare they approve specifically, after a careful reading, the following articles: 1 (Assignment and taking charge of an accommodation); 2.5 (Fee supplement resulting from an increase in electricity prices during the term of the contract equal to or greater than €200,00 compared to the PUN average published by GME) 2.2 (Payment obligation even in case of lack of use of the Accommodation); 3.1 (Cautionary Deposit and first installment fee); 4.1 and 4.2 (Late payment of the fee installment); 5 (Damages and Losses); 6 (Compulsory change of assigned place); 7 (How to exercise the right of withdrawal of the Assignee and consequences); 8 (Release of the Accommodation); 9 (In-Domus indemnity); 10 (Actions and sanctions), 11 (Use of IT-Facilities); 12 (In-Domus' right to access the Accommodation) and 13 (Jurisdiction and communication)

* Data Recipient Categories

In relation to the aforementioned purposes, personal data could be disclosed to the following Companies, Bodies and/or natural persons, located in EU Countries, which provide services, also external, on behalf of the Data Controller. Among which, in order to clarify, we just give an example, not as an exhaustive list:

- Accounting Management Consultancy
- Tax Consultant;
- IT Service Company;
- Supervisory Bodies;
- Supervisory Board;
- Data Controller's Website Maintenance Company;
- Providers of maintenance services, to solve problems linked to the services provided by the Data Controller related to the Data Subject's stay;
- Public authorities and administrative authorities, in the cases provided by the existing legislation.
- Institutions and educational institutions, universities and the analogues, which at least partially subsidise the services provided to Clients, in relation to the purpose presented in paragraph 3, to demonstrate their presence in the owner's facilities.

() More detailed information on the external Recipients is available at the Data Controller.

Data Retention Period

Please take a look at column 4 of Table 1 (Data Retention period).

Data Subjects' Rights

With reference to the aforementioned data processing, the Data Subject can exercise the following rights provided by the GDPR:

- Right of access by the data subject [article 15 of the GDPR];
- Right to rectification [article 16 of the GDPR];
- Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') [article 17 of the GDPR];
- Right to restriction of processing, including in the case of unlawful processing or disputing the accuracy of personal data by the data subject [article 18 of the GDPR];
- Right to data portability [article 20 of the GDPR];
- Right to object [article 21 of the GDPR];
- Right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing [article 22 of the GDPR].

You can easily get further information concerning Data Subjects' Rights by visiting our website or simply asking the Data Controller to provide an integral extract of the aforementioned Data Subjects' Rights.

The aforementioned rights may be exercised, according to the provisions of the GDPR, by sending an e-mail to privacy@in-domus.it

In-Domus S.r.l., pursuant to article 19 of the GDPR, proceeds to inform recipients to whom the personal data have been communicated, about any requested corrections, erasure or treatment purpose limitations, where this is possible.

Where the data processing activity purpose has a Consent as legal basis, the data subject will be always entitled to withdraw his/her consent, simply sending an e-mail to the aforementioned email address.

Pursuant to article 7 of the GDPR, the withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal. The latter can therefore be valid only for the future and does not apply to anything which has already been published, especially in paper format and on magazines or digital documents distributed or downloaded on-line.

Right to lodge a Complaint

If the data subject considers that his/her rights have been harmed, he/she has the right to lodge a complaint to the Competent Supervisor Authority (or Data Protection Supervisor), according to the formalities indicated by the same authority. If you are Italian you can refer to the following link: <http://www.garanteprivacy.it/web/guest/home/docweb/-/docweb-display/docweb/4535524>.

Mandatory Provision of Personal Data and nature of the Provision of Data

We underline that, if the Data Processing purpose has as legal basis a legal or a contractual obligation (even also a pre-contractual one), the Data Subject has necessarily to confer his/her required personal data. If not so, the Data Controller will be unable to pursue the specific Data Processing purpose.

For the other purposes described above, for which consent is necessary, the Data Subject may revoke his/her consent at any time and the effects will start running from the moment of revocation, subject to the terms established by the law. As a general principle, revocation of consent is effective only for the future. Therefore, with regard to what mentioned above on use and publication of the images in which the Data Subject appears (about the revocation of the consent previously given), the processing of Data carried out before the revocation of consent will not be affected and will not lose its legitimacy.

Additionally, if published on websites or social network, audio-visual and/or photographic material may be downloaded and the downloaded copies of the images/recordings will not be available to the Data Controller but under the own responsibility of any third parties who download the mentioned material.

Failure to or partial consent may not guarantee the complete provision of services or the performance of activities, only with reference to the single purposes for which consent is denied.

With particular reference to the video-audio recordings and/or the photoshoots and the subsequent publication, please note that the consent to such treatment, while remaining free and optional, is necessary in order to join the event and, therefore, a denial/refusal of such consent will result in the impossibility to attend the events or continue to attend them.

In-Domus S.r.l. does not make use of any automated decision- making process.

Data Processing Formalities

Personal data will be processed in paper form and electronically inserting them in the applicable data banks (clients, users etc.) which can be consulted and processed by the operators and processors appointed by the Data Controller who will be able to carry out the consultation, use, handling, comparison and any other appropriate operation, direct or automatic, respecting the legal requirements necessary to guarantee the confidentiality and the security of the data, as well as their accuracy, updating, and their relevancy to the declared aims.

Change and updates

This privacy policy reports the date of its last update in the header.

In-Domus S.r.l. can make changes, update or additions to this privacy policy also as a consequence of any addendum laid down by legal obligations, EU Regulations, Italian and European laws. Changes will be notified and the Data Subject may view the text of the updated privacy policy on the website: <http://www.in-domus.it/privacy-e-policy/>
